

Longrow 14 Year

Distiller Description.

Richness in abundance. The malted barley, heavily peated in the kiln, coupled with longer maturation in sherry casks elevates Longrow 14 Year Old to a level of maturity far beyond its years.

Nose: Rich milk chocolate and cream, subtle smoke and fresh mint.

Palate: Very well balanced on the palate. Initial sweetness, dried apricots, peat and burnt embers.

Finish: Satisfying smoky, without being overpowering. Cream, chocolate and oak.

Reviewer notes. 46 vol. Score 87

The nose is of medium-body. There are notes of cut hay and earthen roots, a little dried grass, cereals and malted barley. There is a certain freshness present and a very subtle smoke develops. The palate is quite thick and sweet. There are plenty of rich cereal notes, barley and just a hint of peat. The faintest wisp of smoke tapers up with a little malt extract. The oak develops a bit with pepper and spice. The finish is long with the peppery oaked tannins proffering ample staying power.

Library Pub notes.

By the glass: $14.50

By the bottle: Special purchase only. Price varies with availability. Ask your bartender.

4 0 2 - 5 7 1 - 6 2 6 2

THE LIBRARY PUB

www.librarypubomaha.com